

Kathak Classical Dance Performance

with Rachna Ramya Agrawal

Saturday, November 18
2:00 - 3:00pm

Broadview Middle School Auditorium
72 Hospital Avenue, Danbury.

- Experience the beauty of this dramatic Indian dance that originated 2,000 years ago.
- Watch the intensive footwork and variety of fast spins.
- Listen to the bells. Kathak dancers have great control over the bells on their ankles, making just one bell tinkle from more than a hundred worn on each ankle.

Rachna is a renowned Kathak dancer from India. She earned a Master's degree in dance from the prestigious Pracheen Kala University in India. Rachna was selected as a Master Teaching Artist by the State of Connecticut Commission on the Arts in 1993 and is currently listed in the Master Teaching Artist roster. In addition to giving performances, lecture demonstrations and workshops, she teaches at the India Performing Arts Center in Harford, CT.

one book
one community

"Rachna Agrawal mesmerized the audience with her twinkling footwork
and graceful style."

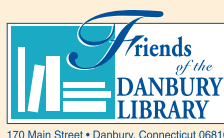

Weekly Spotlight, Chicago

Sponsored by:

BRANSON

DANBURY LIBRARY

Free admission. No registration.
For further information call the Danbury Library Community Relations Office at 796-8061 or the WCSU Office of University Relations at 203-837-8486.